DEAR SIRS—I received the trees Monday, Nov. 2d, and am very much pleased with them, also the two grape vines I received free, and I thank you for them, as I did not suppose you would replace the others, but as I find you a reliable firm, I will do all I can to get you more orders.

Yours truly, WALTER S. SMITH, Delaware.

The Orange Quince, the old favorite.—Every one is well acquainted with the Orange Quince, some know it as the Apple Quince. It is a good old variety, never disappoints the planter; good for home use and for market, and more largely planted than any other variety yet introduced. Its large, golden-yellow fruit, of fine quality, is to be seen in more or less quantities in nearly every garden or orchard every season, as it rarely fails to produce a crop.

In comparing our prices with others, remember we make no charge for boxes or bales.

A LETTER FROM ONE OF OUR CUSTOMERS.

Reliance Nursery Co., Geneva, N. Y.

DEAR SIRS—I received my trees to-day, and they were all in good order and the trees were a great deal better than I expected they would be for that price. I have paid one dollar for trees no better than you sent me. I thank you for the extra ones you sent me. I remain,

WM. C. SCUDDER, New Jersey.
